SOURCE

On 16 June North Korean officials were storing ammunition, food, and clothing in twenty trenches at the foot of a hill 250 meters northwest of the Manp'ojin (126-17, 41-09) (BA-7259) railroad station. A supply highway built as a ditch 3 meters deep and 5 meters wide joined with the road to Pyoro-dong (126-15, 41-08) (BA-6957) at points which were protected by trees and hills from air detection. Horsecarts serviced the storage day and night.
